

WEBINAR

Alcohol and drugs: obstacle for full life and societal development

THURSDAY, 5TH NOVEMBER 2020, 9.00 A.M. – 12 P.M.

SPEAKERS

Anne Babb

General Secretary, International Blue Cross

Kirsten Trans

Head of Department 'Treatment Methods' and Head of the leaders in the sector 'Children and Youth' Blue Cross Denmark

Bedingar Ngarossorang

Project Coordinator of the 'Blue Cross Prevention Programme against Alcohol and Drugs through Life Skills', Blue Cross Chad

Conference Language: English

Registration:
a.babb@internationalbluecross.org,

Closing Date: 2nd November 2020

PROGRAM

Goal: Blue Cross work seeks to support people who are negatively affected by drugs and alcohol. This training wants to enable you to reflect on your everyday work and challenge you to look at your part in a broader context. International perspectives of the same work help you to develop a new horizon and equip you further at your daily work.

- | | | |
|-------|---|--------------------------------|
| 8.30 | Log in to the event | |
| 9.00 | Welcome and introduction to the program | |
| 9.15 | Is treatment and counselling enough to support life free from addiction? International examples of supportive structures and how can our organisation engage on these? | Anne Babb |
| 9.45 | Interview with Project co-ordinator from Blue Cross Chad | Bedingar Ngarossoran/AB |
| 10.15 | Reactions from the audience | |
| 10.30 | Break | |
| 11.00 | Good practice examples of the Blue Cross Denmark Daily contact and treatment of children, young people and adults Blue Cross Denmark | Kirsten Trans |
| 11.30 | Reactions from the audience | |
| 11.45 | Conclusion | |